CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Jensen, as Chair of Health and Human Services, reports on the appointment of Barbara Heckman to the State Foster Care Review Board.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen, Chairman of the Health and Human Services Committee.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. Distinguished colleagues, I would like to bring forward the name of Barbara Heckman to the Foster Care Review Board. Barbara is a reappointment to the Foster Care Review Board. She's from Lincoln, Nebraska, here, a retired teacher and past member of a local foster care review board. She currently serves on the Board of Trustees of First Plymouth Congregational Church, on the board of Cedars Youth Services, and a board member of Lincoln Community Development Partnership. She appeared before us on January 19th, received unanimous approval from the Health and Human Services Committee, and I would at this time forward her name to you for approval. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Anybody wishing to discuss the report? Seeing none, Senator Jensen, did you wish to close? He waives closing. The question before the body is the confirmation report of the Health and Human Services Committee. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote, Legislative Journal page 438.) 36 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of that report.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The report is adopted.

CLERK: A second report, Mr. President, by Health and Human Services regarding appointments to the Rural Health Advisory Commission.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen, to open.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the...and distinguished colleagues. The...I'll do these individually. Lisa Yank has been approved and unanimously from the Health and Human Services Committee on January 19th. She is a new appointment to the Rural Health Advisory Commission as a
